Hello Music Supervisors,

I would like to introduce you to our unique line of music which is available for licensing. If you are in need of authentic Carousel or other antique music for your television or motion picture project, contact us. We specialize in music from the Gay 90's up to the Roaring 20's. We can license anything you need for your project. We have the following type of music available: Carousel, Band Organ, Orchestrion, Calliope, Money Organ, Nickelodeon, Player Piano, Music Box and more. We have thousands of songs in our library of authentic antique musical instruments in our impressive library.

Do you need music for a Carnvial or Carousel scene? We have it!

Do you need music for an Old West scene with a player piano? We have it!

Do you need music for a Roaring 20's scene with authenitic machine played music? We have it!

Do you need music for a Circus or Clown scene? We have it!

We have provided music for many programs over the years. Some of the highlights have been our machines playing music for the Brady Bunch TV show, music for the 1975-76 Disney Bicentennial Parade, the 2009 motion picture, "Adventureland", a news project for the BBC, a short film by Mike Rozette "Slappy's Sliding Scale" and a few more in the works. We also provided music for a neat Southwest Airlines commercial in 2009. New in 2010, we have provided music for the Harrison Ford motion picture "Extraordinary Measures," and the TV series, "Eastwick". We are also working with HBO for a very special project that will begin in September 2010.

Contact us for more information to license our music. Please check out our website for all of our selections. You can listen to sound samples, plus we have some music on Apple ITUNES (over 50 CD's at the moment) for your listening pleasure.
